President's Message

Greetings!

Welcome to our latest project: The PCCI Online Magazine
We started our PCCI Quarterly Magazine way back in 2001.

Unfortunately, with the cost of inflation plus other extras,
the magazine has cost the PCCI more than a million pesos each year. Thus, in order to cope with the changing times in everything, your board has decided to start the online magazine together with a yearly printed PCCI Annual.

This online magazine is downloadable and printable, should you desire to do so.

For those interested to advertise their dogs and/or products, kindly call the PCCI office to inquire about our rates.

As this is our initial venture into the online magazine, kindly forgive us for any temporary glitches and errors.

Your opinions are important to us.

Feel free to email us at info@pcci.org.ph or drop us a line.

We shall continue to cope with your ever changing needs.

M a b u h a y!

Augusto Benedicto S Santos III
President

EDITORIAL TEAM

Godofredo Salud Editor-in-Chief

Fred is currently the Corporate Secretary of the PCCI. After leaving the corporate world, he decided to divide his time between farming, designing gardens and managing a landscape maintenance company with his business partner.

Years ago, he was a regular feature writer for Meralco News, the official monthly publication of the Manila Electric Company. For a few years, he also edited the Waling Waling, the Philippine Orchid Society's magazine.

He has also written for nationally published magazines such as Animal Scene and Town and Country. He was one of the contributing authors in the highly successful book Philippine Native Trees 202, and the yet to be published Philippine Native Trees 303.

Raymundo W. Lo, MD, FPSP,FCAP,FASCP Member

Dr. Lo is an American and Philippine Board certified Pathologist who started in purebred dogs in 1970. He has bred and owned over 150 Philippine champions, grand champions and Hall of Famers. His Pekingese are renowned internationally and he has 35 homebred American champions to his credit as well, most of them winning in American specialties.

He is an accomplished handler and FCI International Judge having judged in Asia, Europe and Australia doing Best in Show honors.

Dr. Lo brings his depth of experience in breeding, showing and judging to bear on his writing for the PCCI Quarterly Gazette to which he has contributed many articles in years past. He also contributes to the Orient Express, a Pekingese breed magazine in the USA and is called on for his opinion in American all-breed magazines such as Show sight magazine.

His literary skills were honed back in his Pre-Med days at the University of the Philippines Diliman when he was one of the few freshmen in each year to be included in the elite English Honors class (an accelerated program for students rigidly screened for command of the English language and writing skills). Dr. Lo was Editor-in-Chief of the Philippine Collegian in his freshman year by virtue of an essay writing contest.

Cris Pineda-Alcantara, DVM Member

Dr. Cris Pineda-Alcantara acquired her DVM degree in 1999 at UP Los Banos. She has been a companion animal practitioner for 17 years. Resident veterinarian and owner of Central Bark Pet Station and Grooming Services located in Libis, Quezon City. She was the former president of the Veterinary Practitioners Association of the Philippines (VPAP), and former secretary of the Philippine Animal Hospital Association (PAHA).

She has been a PCCI member since 1995, a dog show exhibitor since 2004. She owns Fairlane Kennels, under which she has bred and exhibited of Jack Russell Terriers and Pugs.

Talia Galvez Member

A strong love for words, dogs, photography, a healthy dose of wanderlust, and a distinct thread of asterism are what you'll likely find if you examine a cross section of Talia Galvez's life.

Despite being an entrepreneur by trade, she has always gravitated towards the written word, having had journalists for grandparents. She often spouts off thoughts on all and sundry via social media and writes the occasional article and enjoys rhyming poetry.

She has been involved in a variety of canine sports and activities for more than half her life, including conformation and obedience competitions. She can often be spotted at dog shows with a camera around her neck.

The rest of the time (aside from the requisite hour's necessary for the evil called work) she backpacks through various locales either as a volunteer for disaster relief efforts, or attempting to slake the so far unquenchable wanderlust previously mentioned.

HIGH STREET
BAND OF BANDITS
"BANDIT"

High Street Labrador Retrievers Kennel has been breeding and campaigning the breed since 2012. Its goal is to promote and produce the notable characteristics of the breed: medium sized dogs with strongly built, balanced, proportionate bodies, well-defined heads, and the distinguishing "otter tail" the breed is known for. Above all, it strives to preserve the hallmark of the Labrador Retriever, its excellent temperament.

High Street has produced more than a dozen Philippine Champions. In 2014, they received Top Breeder of the Year award from PCCI. One of the many litters they produced is the exceptional "B" litter wherein

four (4)
of
Int/Ph
HOF
Bandit's

littermates are also Hall of Famers.

Their dam and sire are PH Ch Madisons Quest Radio Flyer (Dam of Merit), and PH Gr Ch Madisons Quest Sure Thing (Sire of Merit). This litter of seven produced five dogs who went on to gather numerous titles and accolades in the conformation ring: Bandit, Boss Lady, Bequest, Blessin Disguise, and Bounty.

Actually, Bandit is an INT CH/SEA CH/PH HOF/JR CH and Top PCCI Labrador Retriever for 2015. He started off an illustrious show career with early promise, earning several Best Baby Puppy in Group awards. He then went on to earn his Philippine Champion title, and a notable win as Best Junior in Group and Group 3 placement under judge Bo Skalin at just a little over 1 year of age.

His Grand Championship, his Hall of Fame, as well as his International Championship (CACIB points) campaigns, plus his Southeast Asian (SEA) Championship, proved what a special dog Bandit is. He garnered several Group wins and placements, where he earned over three times the necessary points to earn his Philippine HOF title.

Even in a breed noted for its temperament, Bandit is a standout. He is outgoing, and exceptionally affectionate. He loves everyone and has a calm disposition that perfectly exemplifies the essence of a Labrador Retriever.

FCI Show & Show Judges Commissions Meetings

Shangri-la's Mactan Resort & Spa, Cebu, Philippines

January 30-31, 2016

January 2016 was a very busy month for the Philippine Canine Club, Inc. (PCCI) having to hold the annual Philippine Circuit Show at the Smart Araneta Coliseum on January 20-23, 2016 followed by the Cebu Circuit Show on January 27 & 28, 2016 then the FCI Show and Show Judges commissions meetings on January 30-31, 2016.

Mr. Ronnie Natividad was tasked by the PCCI President, Mr. Augusto Benedicto Santos III to be the prime mover of the FCI Show & Show Judges Commissions Meeting along with Dr. Orlino Hosaka and Mr. Godofredo Salud. Initially, the idea was to hold the meeting in Boracay but for security concerns it was decided to hold the meeting instead at the Shangri-La's Mactan Resort & Spa, Cebu, Philippines. The venue is very nice and was very much appreciated and enjoyed by the delegates

The meeting started at 9:30 am. The FCI President, Mr. Rafael De Santiago delivered a speech and wished all the delegates a fruitful meeting. Mr. Tamas Jakkel of Hungary was the representative of the FCI General Committee. He supervised the election of the officers of the commissions. Mr. Vince Hogan of OurDogs magazine was also present upon the invitation of the PCCI to conduct interviews with the officers of the commissions.

In the past, almost none of the Asian countries are involved in the FCI commissions meetings. During the commissions meeting in Paris in 2014, Mr. Augusto Benedicto Santos III offered to host the meeting in the Philippines to make the meeting closer to the FCI APAC member countries and to give them a chance to attend and to be involved with the commissions meetings. Most of the meetings of the Show & Show Judges Commissions are usually held in Europe and it was the second time that the meeting was held outside of Europe and was the first time to be held in Asia. It was a well-attended meeting represented by 31 different countries and ten (10) of which were from the FCI APAC member countries.

Countries represented in the meeting are the following:

1. China	-	Tao Gong & Franki Leung
2. Colombia	-	Aida Rivera Franco & Juan Alberto Grillo

On Friday afternoon, January 29, 2016 a short seminar on “Breed Exaggeration” was held in one of the function rooms of Shangri-la Hotel. It was a very good seminar conducted by Mr. John Wauben. Judges are sharing their knowledge of the breed. Several photos of the dogs were shown on a power point presentation and the judges will give their comments and opinions.

Friday night dinner was held at the seafood restaurant and each of the attendees paid their share of the food bill. Saturday night was the Welcome Dinner hosted by the Philippine Canine Club, Inc. (PCCI) held at the beach of the Be Hotel. Cultural dancers were arranged to perform the traditional dance like “Tinikling”. Some of the delegates gamely joined the dancing like Mr. John Wauben, Ms. Barbara Mueller, Ms. Aida Rivera Franco, Mr. Juan Alberto Grillo, Ms. Helen Skiarova, Mr. Rafael De Santiago, Mr. Roberto Velez-Pico, Mr. Tamas Jakkel and PCCI staff.

The meeting of the FCI Show commission was held in the morning from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm of October 30, 2016. One of the agenda of the commission is the election of officers wherein the PCCI Vice-President, Mr. Ronnie Natividad was elected as Secretary of the Show Commission.

Some of the topics that were discussed in the meeting were:

1. The observers reports from World and Section Shows;
2. A judge must be informed not later than 3 days before the event regarding the breeds and number of dogs he is scheduled to judge, as well as his duties in the ring of honour.
3. At World Dog Shows and Section Shows the FCI logo and the FCI Flag must be visible at all these events, including at the main entrance and in the main ring.
4. Proposal to the FCI General Committee to allocate a budget for the computerized dog show system and to make it available to all FCI members and contract partners.

The FCI Show Judges commission meeting was held in the afternoon from 2:00 to 5:30 pm. The joint meeting of the FCI Show & Show Judges was held the following day January 31, 2016 from 9:30 to 12:30 pm.

Delegates from the FCI APAC members actively participated in the discussions. Mr. Larry Yuen of Malaysia conducted a stress-relieving exercise which was enjoyed and appreciated by the delegates.

At the end of the meeting, Mr. Christian Stefanescu of Romania mentioned the very interesting “breed exaggeration seminar” that was held on January 29, 2016. He suggested to the body to hold more similar seminar for the education and sharing of the knowledge of the judges. He also recommended holding a Judges Convention for all the Judges of the FCI member countries.

The newly elected officers of the following commissions are:

WHO LET THE DOGS OUT?

By: Dr Cris Pineda-Alcantara

Common diseases to watch out for when taking your dog out

As responsible owners, there are certain viral and parasitic diseases' and conditions that we need to be aware of, both for our own dogs and for those around us, if you are the type of person who loves to bring out your dogs, whether to a dog show, obedience trial, dog events or just taking them out to socialize.

Viral diseases such as distemper and parvovirus are easily picked up, especially if we leave our dogs unprotected. Parvovirus is a disease that affects young dogs, exhibiting signs such as inappetence, vomiting and bloody stools. There are certain dog breeds that are more susceptible to parvo, such as the dobermanns, miniature pinschers and dachshunds. Canine distemper is an airborne viral disease that starts off with respiratory signs (cough and colds), as the disease progresses, neurological signs appear (twitching and nervous tics). Treatment regimens differ with different veterinarians, depending on what works for their respective practices. These two diseases are easily preventable as both are included in the 5-in-1 vaccine. Also keeping a clean kennel for your dogs is always helpful.

Another disease that we have to watch out for is kennel cough. Kennel cough is literally getting a cough, commonly acquired in areas where there is a high concentration of dogs. It can be cured but expect it to be a stubborn disease to control and that it would have a tendency to rotate in your kennel.

One condition that goes unnoticed is the presence of external parasites. Parasites such as ticks and fleas are also of primary concern. The bite of ticks can cause anemia in our pets, ticks are also the transmitters of the disease many of us may not be familiar with: blood parasitism. Blood parasites are transmitted through the bite of ticks, go into the blood stream and wreak havoc in their bodies, exhibiting signs like nose bleeding, fever, decreased to no appetite, lethargy. Fleas, on the other hand, can also cause anemia and transmit tapeworms to our pets.

So, the next time you take out your dog's even for walks, think about them and the ones around you. Keep safe and keep protected!

PHILIPPINE CANINE SPORTS ALLIANCE PCSA's 3RD QUARTER EVENT

By: Talia Galvez

In recent years, PCCI has endeavored to bring more attention to other forms of canine sports, particularly those in the agility field. In line with this, PHILIPPINE CANINE SPORTS ALLIANCE [PCSA] held its 11th and 12th Agility Competitions on July 23 and 29, 2016, respectively.

Events held during the 11th competition were Agility, Jumping 1, Jumping 2, and Flyball, with Mandy Palicpic judging Agility and Jumping 1, Mariel Dayrit judging Jumping 2, and Simon Sim judging Flyball.

The 12th Agility competition was judged by Antoan Hlebarov of Bulgaria, marking it as the first time that a foreign judge had officiated at an agility event for PCSA. Events held during this day were Agility, Jumping 1, and Jumping 2. Mr. Hlebarov also held a talk/open forum discussion with the participants after the competition, advising the handlers of his observations and suggestions.

A Brief Explanation of Events:

FLYBALL
1st Place
BOKS K9

2nd Place
URBAN SPORTS K9

Agility: A handler is required to guide his/her dog through a varied obstacle course, in a pattern set by the judge. Obstacles that are used include contact obstacles, jumps, and tunnels. Handlers are not allowed to keep their dogs on leash and must rely on voice, movement, and hand signals to direct their dogs. Each run is timed, and penalties are incurred for veering off course, missed obstacles, failure to hit certain points on contact obstacles, and fallen jumps and time is added for penalties. A standard and a maximum course time is set for every run. Exceeding the standard but not reaching maximum will incur penalties, and exceeding the maximum course time will result in disqualification.

Jumping 1 and 2: Similar to Agility, but only jump obstacles are utilized. Jumping 2 is more advanced. The course for Jumping 2 can be altered to add difficulty, and the course time can be faster.

Flyball: A relay sport wherein teams comprised of 4 dogs each race along a set distance. A start/finish line is designated and dogs have to jump hurdles towards a spring loaded box that releases tennis balls when the dogs hit a designated contact area. Each run is timed, and all dogs have to jump all the hurdles and hit the contact area for the timer to stop.

Club Terriales Filipinas holds first and second Terrier Specialty Shows

by Dr. Cris Pineda - Alcantara

Club Terriales Filipinas held its first event as an officially-sanctioned Philippine Canine Club Inc (PCCI) club with the staging of the first and Second Terrier Specialty Show. Done in cooperation with MCPPI Pampanga International, the shows were held on August 27 and 28 at the SM City Pampanga, San Fernando, Pampanga.

Terrier breeds that competed in the show included the Cairn Terrier, Fox Terrier (Smooth), Fox Terrier (Wirehaired), Jack Russell Terrier, Norwich Terrier, Scottish Terrier, and Staffordshire Bull Terrier. A total of 36 entries were registered for Club Terriales's inaugural shows.

Club Terriales President Sabrina Peregrino and Vice President Rogelio Cruz Jr. hope that the specialty shows will help bring more attention to terrier breeds in the country. They also promised that dog breeders may look forward to more shows organized by the club in the future.
